Community Welcomes Audio Biz as Midwest Sales Representative

Chester, PA - Effective February 3, 2017, Audio Biz has been appointed to represent Community Professional Loudspeakers in the Midwest region, comprising Northern and Central Illinois, the Eastern half of Wisconsin, and the state of Michigan.

Founded in 1991 by Randy Stenson and Les Murin, award-winning Audio Biz, Inc. represents leading manufacturers of professional audio, video and lighting products. The company is located in Ingleside, Illinois and operates a 4,000 square foot office facility, which houses administrative, training, sample warehousing and demo fabrication areas.

With a team of 11 employees, Audio Biz prides itself as a firm that returns calls, shows up on time, and delivers effective trainings and demos. This simple approach, the foundation of how it does business, has created a company consistently recognized as one of the top rep firms in the country.

"We represent, sell and support the best manufacturers in the industry, so we are proud to be partnering with Community and look forward to supporting their team in this region of the country," said Beth Mickel, Sales Manager at Audio Biz.

Steve Young, Community's North America Sales Director, added, "The Audio Biz team has gained a well-earned reputation for providing excellent service to all integrators, large and small, throughout their expansive territory. With Community now part of their already strong offering of pro AV brands, they can provide integrators with a comprehensive end-to-end solution for almost any installation requirement."

Audio Biz can be reached at (815) 271-3000, sales@audiobiz.com or visit www.audiobiz.com.
